ShirLaLa in Concert

Bring Parent's Choice Award winning Jewish kiddie-rock sensation ShirLaLa to your community for an interactive and engaging family concert. Blending words, story and song, Shira creates a rich experience for children and adults alike. Viva, the glitter rocker guitarist and drummer Lee Free of Circus Amok make up Shira's child-friendly fun band.

After the show, stick around for the High Fivin' Hug Fest. Meet the band and check out the instruments. Shira signs CDs so that you can continue the celebration at home.

Concerts generally run around 55 minutes long. Target age range is Nursery School, Kindergarten through Third grade, or Second through Sixth grade. In addition to the themed concerts below, ShirLaLa gladly tailors a concert to your vision including general secular and Jewish themes.

"Audiences are swept up by her love for the music. This is Jewish music and identity building at its very best."

Shabbat

Based on the music from Shira's original and most popular recording, ShirLaLa Shabbat, this concert is a rich experience for children, parents and educators alike. The show follows the story of preparation for Shabbat and bringing Her in together with friends and family. We'll make challah and dinner together, gather round the table, bring in the Shabbat Queen and her entourage of angels. We dance to favorites including, "I got that Shabbat Feeling" and celebrate the universal notion of resting and relaxing on this special day.

Havdallah Pajama

We say good bye to Shabbat with this sweet evening time show with sing-along and dancing, bedtime stories, and lullabies. This concert includes a Havdallah ceremony in a child's language. Together, we'll look for three stars in the sky, smell the spices, and hug like the intertwined wicks of the Havdallah candle.

Chanukah

The ShirLaLa Chanukah concert serves up a musical re-enactment of the holiday story, chock full of heroes, drama, excitement and miracles. This story is about the power of light and how we come together to share in its strength. March like a valiant Macabee; clean and restore the Temple to witness the miracle of the oil. It's a fabulous story, but it doesn't end there! Sizzle like latkes, dance like flickering candles, and join in the Human dreidle spinning contest.

"I was bowled over with how dynamic her songs are, how much energy she has, and how fun [she is]!"
-Wisconsin Jewish Chronicle

"Shira Kline is not playing at being cool. She is cool."
- The Blog at 16th and Q Posted on May 12, 2009 by CPO By Joshua Ford, Chief Programming Officer, Washington DCJCC

"Outrageously fresh and creative, with songs to nourish your brain, your body, and your heart."
- Billy Jonas, family performer Parents' Choice Gold Winner (2000, 2002, 2009)

"I had so much fun my armpits are sweaty and stinky!"
- Isaac, age 5, Memphis, TN

Tu B'Shvat and Earth Worm Disco

What do trees and children have in common? "We grow, we grow, and we grow!" Gather round to celebrate the birthday of the trees in preparation for Jewish Earth Day. This show weaves together ShirLaLa's Parent's Choice Award Winning "Earth Worm Disco" with the Jewish eco-holiday of Tu B'Shvat. Children's faces light up when they meet Mother Earth and Doctor Breathe-Easy, wiggle with the earth worms and dance with the trees of the forest. Shira fills this show with gems from Jewish folklore and interactive musical games for being Green. "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle and Rock!"

Purim

Get your Purim Spiel on with ShirLaLa! This fun holiday requests that we change the world, reversing the negative to positive, the dark to light. And that we do it all through straight up goofy costumes, silly faces, and wild hearted noise making. What better way to bring on this revelry than a ShirLaLa family concert. We sing and dance the Purim story and symbols, enacting some of the best storybook characters of all time. Shira also leads a musical costume parade.

Passover

Gather round to tell the story of freedom through song and dance with one of the most magical storytellers and minstrels in the Jewish world today. We join the children of Israel on an exciting musical journey from slavery in Egypt, across the Sea of Reeds with Miriam, and all the way to the Land of Milk and Honey. Featuring favorites from the ShirLaLa Pesach recording, Shira will kick off this Passover season for you and yours with interactive enchantment that you can take home to your seder.

"The pied piper for the next Green Generation."
- LA Parent, January 2010

Shavuot

Once upon a time, we received the Torah and Mt. Sinai spontaneously bloomed in a rainbow of bright flowers. Beginning with a musical and interactive storytelling of Creation, we sing about the colors of our world in celebration of Torah and Jewish values. Children's faces light up as they sing out and dance their own special Hebrew letter. The festival of first fruits, this holiday concert is a beautiful celebration of a year's worth of hard work and growth. A perfect fit for your end of the school year event.

Earth Worm Disco and Rockin' Out Green

Celebrate the wonders of growing up green with Parent's Choice Award Winner, ShirLaLa. This lively and engaging show makes learning about the environment fun. The performance connects children and environmentalism with stories, games and lovable characters like Mother Earth and Dr. BreathEasy as well as the Seven Mighty Powers of the Universe – The G Generation. In the spirit of "School House Rock" and "Free to be You and Me," Earth Worm Disco is a musical and educational playground. Audiences are swept up by ShirLaLa's love for the music as she inspires and energizes concertgoers to join in the fun. Shira performs with her band which can range in size from 3-5 musicians. Geared towards kindergarten through sixth grade.

ShirLaLa Concerts for Different Age Groups

Bring Shira into your Religious School students, 3rd through 7th grades, for a highly entertaining story and teaching-xfilled concert. Introducing music by today's most popular Jewish rock stars, Shira communicates Jewish values and the depth of prayer with a sense of humor. Everyone has a lot of fun at this interactive concert!
