

תְּשׁוּבָה

t'shuvah

T'shuvah means to return to being the very best person we can be. First we think about how we acted over the past year and then we try to make up for what we did wrong and apologize to those we have hurt. This way we begin the Rosh Hashana (new year) feeling fresh and clean on the inside!