Shira Kline, aka ShirLaLa, is an award winning New York based performer and Jewish music educator. The Jewish Week recently selected Shira as one of 2011's "36 Under 36, The New Re-Engineers" of Jewish life. She travels across the country and internationally delivering a dynamic, interactive program of joy and spirit, story and song. Raised in the world of Jewish music and the tradition of Torah, Shira has worked for over a decade with a diverse array of Jewish communities to enliven rituals, holiday celebrations, and love for Jewish life and prayer. She blends words, story and music to create a rich experience for children and adults alike.

ShirLaLa and her kiddie-rock band have performed in hundreds of venues throughout the United States as well as stages in England, Italy, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada. Her three "outrageously hip Jewish kiddie-rock" albums, a favorite with the PJ Library, are played in over 25,000 homes, classrooms and synagogues across the world. Find them at ShirLaLa.com along with Shira's "Blog Sameach," a unique educational resource center for parents and teachers full of original coloring pages, recipes, teachings, stories and project ideas. Shira serves on the faculty of the Hava NaShira Music Institute and is also a founding company member of Storahtelling: Ritual Theatre Revived where she performs as a maven, ritual leader, actor, writer, director and musician. This year she joined the musical forces of Synagogue 3000 and the Next Dor Conversation.

Shira's newest eco-music recording "Earth Worm Disco," found at RockinOutGreen.com, nourishes the brain, body and heart. A Parent's Choice award winner, "Earth Worm Disco" is original and imaginative music for all the little rock n' rollers out there who love to dance and love our planet too.
